Policeman John Doe, let us say, is quietly fatrolling his post some twenty miles from his home. He is thinking of the hours he loses in travelling. "Hello, Doe," says a voice coming up behind him. It is the wardman. "How do you like your post?" asks the

Then the crafty wardman introduces poor John Doe to the "shakedown." "Doe," says he, "you're a good fellow and ought to be sent near your home. I'll try to fix it. Maybe it'll cost you a few dollars. You know you got to in-

BOY AND GIRL WAIFS.

Samuel and Bessie Mendel Found Astray in Big City.

Ab ten-year-old boy and his seven rear-old sister were found by a police-man of the Cld Slip Station wandering around the South Ferry to-day, The children were unable to speak English and could tell scarcely anything about themselves, The boy said his name was Samuel Mendel and that his sister's name was Bessle.

name was Bessie.
A card on the boy bore the name and a quantum arrangement.

button man who defled the "Big Chief." "It's a station-house rumor that if a man pays $25 he will be taken care of for a year. There will be no transfers for him and no complaints against him." In every precinct there is the "bum" post-that is, a bad section of the territory to be covered. It may be a "tough" section, or it may be a stretch of green grass. Few policemen want

It will cost the men assigned to those undesirable posts from $5 to $15 to get a change. The money may be passed through the wardman, or the job might gin. If he wants to go "higher up" he be trusted to the "chandelier," which means a policeman who is a fixture in

The "chandeller" and the wardman ladder, and many of the 7,500 men in the "do business" only with four eyes-that department have passed through the is, when they have a business proposition of this kind there can be only two parties to the transaction.

"Detail" assignments yield big profits. The "detail" men are policemen who are assigned to the courts, the District-Attorney's office and various public buildings and banks. They have easy work and regular hours, usually from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M. That is why these men must "give up" $150.

John Go "by Favor."

But these jobs go "by favor." They are generally claimed by the politicians; who put "friends" in them. That makes the $159 a "political tribute." There are probably 500 of these assignments in the Department and a large number of them, it is said, must be paid for yearly.

It has always been supposed that the money for making roundsmen, sergeants and captains has passed out of the Department into the coffers of certain politicians. Every man clevated to the grade of sergeant or captain is supposed to have a political sponsor, and if he is to "pay the price" his dealings are with that man alone.

"Higher up" is an oft-repeated phrase applied to the Department. The blurcoats have a better understanding of who "Mr. High-Up" is than the public. As a matter of fact "he" is supposed to be about six men who divide the big "swug." Anybody "next" to these gentlemen can have what the police term "board free" in the Department.

Policeman Oneill was not "nevt," and he soon found himself an itinerant clubswinger.
